A colorful illustration of a classroom. In the foreground, there are several rows of yellow desks with orange chairs. In the center, a wooden teacher's desk holds an open book and a pencil. Behind it is a large black chalkboard with a yellow border. On the chalkboard, the text "TEACHER MESSAGE" is written in black, followed by a message in white and purple. Above the chalkboard, a shelf holds a French flag and two framed pictures. To the left is a large window with white blinds. To the right is a door with a bulletin board and a clock on the wall.
